Back By Popular Demand Clubs Roll the Dice and Move One Space Ahead

The organizations at JCHS accepted the challenge to involve each student. Clubs who were winning the game were, American Field Service, Chess Club, Booster Club, Kays and Kayettes National Honor Society, Booster Club, Ushers Club, Thespians, Spanish, French, German and International Club. A few of the clubs lost their turn, but all laid their cards down.

Booster Club succeeded with their new points system, Kays and Kayettes trick or treated for UNICEF and had a hayrack ride. Ushers were responsible for helping at each home game and at all in school productions.

Overall, some clubs took a chance, but everyone advanced one step further.

On July 19 I arrived after twelve hours of flight in New York, and on the 21 I was already in Junction City staying with my family, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Roether, Dana and Liz. This seems to have been a long time ago, especially when I think about everything I have learned in this time. It isn't only about the language, but also about people, American life and life styles and perhaps even more important about myself.

Coming from Chile's winter, the first change, was the heat of Kansas. Luckily Dana and Liz often took me swimming and sometimes even water skiing. They also took me to lots of places that I really enjoyed because I got to see and know so

When school started, a new way of life was opened to me. I got to know so many people and made very nice friends, for that I am so thankful. Everybody helped me over initial moments when I tended to miss my Chilean home too much.

I enjoyed Christmas and New Years very much, although it was very different being away from home at this season. But, my big school present, the call to Chile added so much happiness to this time.

I already know, one day I want to come back, to enjoy more of this beautiful country. A special thanks to my parents in Chile, AFS and my hostesses, that I could spend a wonderful year, so rich in experiences.

American Field Service

To sum up my entire AFS experience with one paragraph would be impossible. To begin with I applied for the American Field Service summer abroad program and was selected to study in Japan. I found the Japanese people very hospitable and extremely friendly. I also found that the Japanese are not the "rugged individualists" that we Americans are, but instead like to portray a group image where all members are alike. The family that hosted me was a middle-class family of four named Tsutsumi. I was privileged to have two host brothers ages 14 and 16 named Kajunoi and Yoshiaki, not to mention the many friends I made.

I attended a Japanese high school, Niva High, where I learned enough of the language to express myself and some of my ideas. Actual participation in school also gave me a look at Japanese teenagers and thus a view of modern Japan. In spite of much western influence the traditional Japan is still well preserved.

Easy five points: What is the most important aspect of the High School Game? Academics.

This part of the game consists basically of two preliminary rolls made up of semester scores are added up throughout the three year duration of the game and go towards a final grand total.

First of all teachers issue challenge cards, these are the reports, experiments, homework and general busywork that teachers love to assign.

Next come little surprise packages of final tests, term papers and long hours burning the midnight oil.

For those who complete and pass all of the steps the prize is graduation and senior week, both of which are of equal importance.

Andy: It has been pretty cool knowing you this year. As you can see, I wrote on page 85, due to a certain fact! I'm closer to the girl on pg. 84. You should know who that is. It has really been nice knowing a person like you with such caliber and tremendous personality. Even though you think you're smart, it's just kidding. Well, my friend, I hope you accomplish your future goals and I hope that every dream of yours come true. Have a nice summer in New Hampshire. Good luck ~~wherever~~ ^{on} whatever you do. Your best friend always.

Juniors Look Forward to Final Year

We, the class of 1980 would like to wish the class of 1979, "Good luck in Life." We hope that they enjoyed the Prom with the theme, "Moonlight over Paris." We financed it by running concession stands during football and basketball games. We worked many hours on decorations, and hope you had fun.

Now as we face our one remaining year, we realize what other classes have stood up against, while remembering what we ourselves have gone through. We look forward to our graduation, but there are pleasant memories from our years at JCHS.

We hope that as Seniors we can set the same kind of examples as past graduating classes have, for future classes to admire.

We Are Only Young Once That's All Society Can Stand

The Seniors in the class of '79 have finally reached the end of the high school game. The game began as students enrolled in JCHS as Sophomores. They rolled the dice and spun the wheel to advance ahead, although many lost a turn or moved back one. The Seniors have taken a big step into the game of life.

This year the whole Senior class voted on the class colors, flower and motto. This year's colors are Sapphire Blue and Pearl White. The class flower is the blue orse and the motto is "We are made wise not by the recollections of our past, but by the responsibilities of our future. Each year the Senior class committee decides on a gift for the school. This year's committee is debating on a big banner for the new gym.

Cheerleaders Ignite Spirit

Classtime Helps Squads

Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders are the real get-up-and-go behind the school. Not just behind the athletics, but also behind the entire student body. The JCHS Cheerleaders boost everyone's spirit and keep interest alive in "High school games" of all kind.

For the First, Cheerleading was a class and a credit for those involved. The Cheerleading advisor this year is Mrs. Elaine Dibben.

Although being a cheerleader is an envied privilege, there are many responsibilities that go along with it. The cheerleaders meet not only during class time, but before and after school for practice. The Varsity Cheerleaders traveled to Colorado to camp during this past summer. The JV Cheerleaders attended camp at Salina South. A two week summer clinic was also held to train new cheerleaders. Other responsibilities include planning pep rallies and leading Booster Club.

The word Cheerleader stands for many things, but mostly for involvement and leadership. Both important aspects of the "High School Games." And our Cheerleaders were winners in both ways.

1. Gee, my hands are getting tired!
2. JV Cheerleaders drumming up spirit.
3. Donna Ramil "Come on everybody!! I Can't hear anything!"

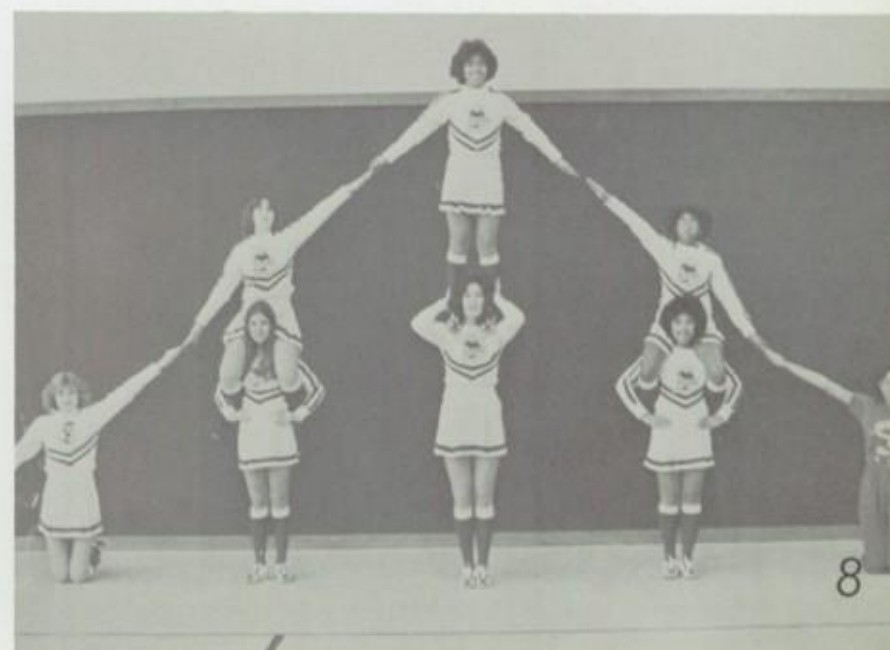

Varsity Cheerleaders; Francine Toombs, Donna Ramil, Cheryl Wormley, Louise Welch, Bark May, Shelia Jenkins, Sherri Saville Ann Greenwald.

JV Cheerleaders: 1st row: Janette Sexton, Amelia Russell, Renee Prologo; 2nd row: Rikki Merriweather, Talisa Renti Sandy Lindsey, DeAnn Wolf; 3rd row: Belinda Roberts, Lynn Robeski.

6. We sure do hope that you snap that picture soon! 7. "We will, we will rock you!" 8. Louise Welch: "I may be smiling, but if I fall off..."

1. Stu Co has a way of bringing people together--sponsors Mr. Terhune and Miss Slinkman. 2. Lori Rucker, you're supposed to read the minutes with your mouth open! 3. "All In The Family," and what a mixture! 4. Don't every one talk at once! 5. Larry Gomez, put your arm down! The vote's over. 6. Smile, Mr. President (Art Lindsey), the eyes of the students are upon you! 7. All those in favor of impeaching Mr. Clark, raise your hand. 8. The main support behind Art: Lori Rucker, Randy Lobaugh, and Barbara May.

Student Council

Student Government in Action

Government begins at the local level and the Student Council at JCHS is as politically involved as most students will become.

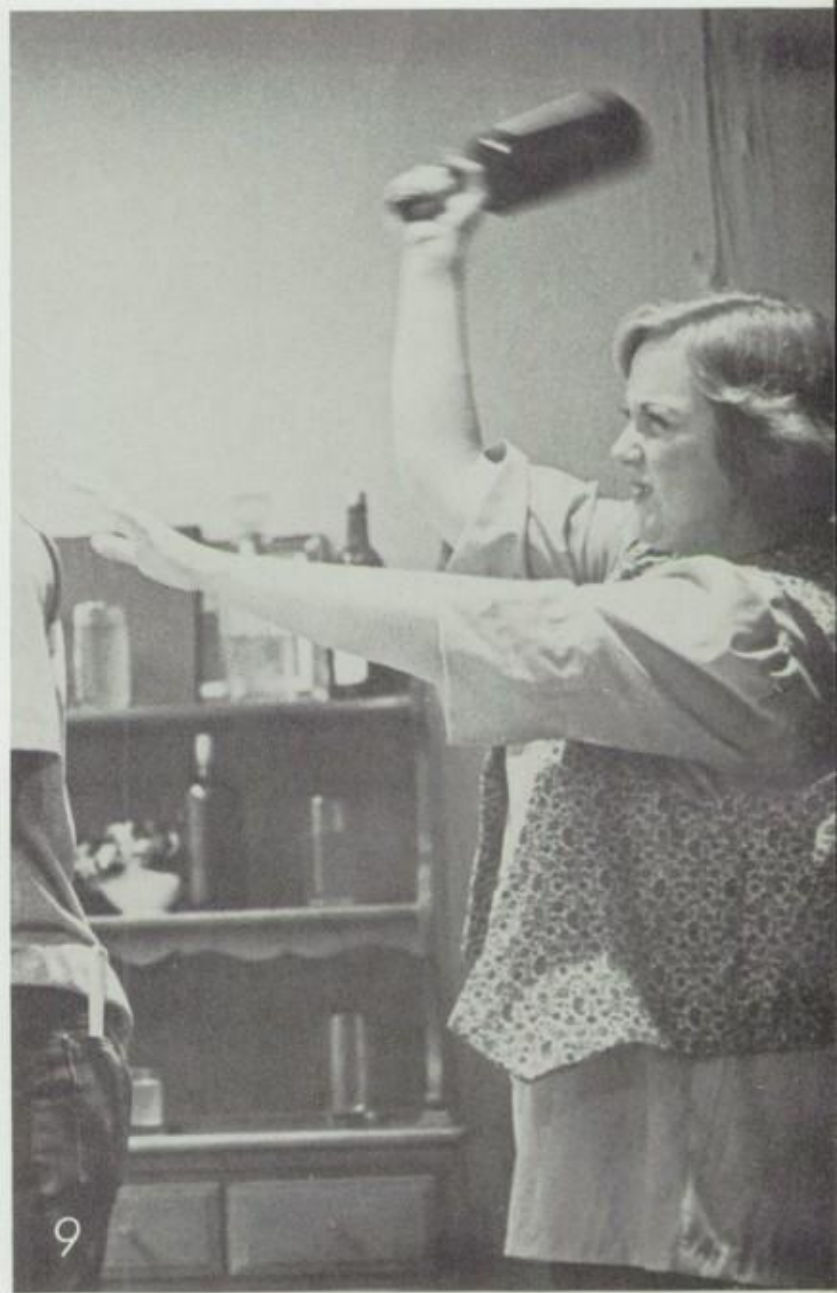

The Student Council is responsible for representing the students through proposed school regulations and privileges. They also provide activities throughout the school year to make it a more exciting and memorable time in our lives.

Officers were Art Lindsey, President; Randy Lobaugh, Vice-President; Lori Rucker, Secretary; and Barbara May, Treasurer. Mr. Terhune and Miss Slinkman sponsored the group.

1. Tommy to Miss Wilcox "Ah, Sweet mystery of life at last I have found you." 2. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller welcome Madeg's friends. 3. Raymond, He ain't got no...crash. 4. Director Mrs. Lee Howe. 5. Madge. 7. Mr. Kimber. 6. Newton and Anabelle Fuller welcome Uncle Stanley. 7. Mr. Kimber dreams up another scheme to take advantage of Mr. Fuller. 8. Madge "The house is wonderful. 9. Miss Rena Lesile "Oh, You dirty rat."

Who's Sleeping Here Tonight

The JCHS Drama Department opened its 1978-79 season with the three act comedy George Washington Slept Here.

The play under the direction of Mrs. Lee Howe, tells of the Fuller family's move to the country. The play revolves around the troubles the family runs in to, and the locals they encounter in trying to become truly "countryfied."

Newton, John Byers; Anabelle, Marti Smith; Mr. Kimber, Mike Augustine; Raymond, Cordy Gordon; Miss Rena Leslie, Kay Deever; Uncle Stanley, Roger Kelly; Madge Fuller, Robyn Robertson; Steve Elderidge, Brian Shandy; Miss Wilcox, Candy Bush; Tommy, Clark Morrow; Brad, Elton Smith; Sue, Juanita Juandro; Mrs. Douglas, Penney Luthi; Katie

You'll Flip Over... Gymnastics

They fly through the air, with the greatest of ease... There's no chance of JCHS gymnasts breaking their knees.

Gymnastics is a class offered here at JCHS for both girls and guys. It is designed to benefit those with special abilities.

The mens and womens gymnastics teams work in these areas: rings, vault, uneven bars, side horse, high bar, balance beam, parallel bars and free exercise. The gymnasts are graded on individual routines, testing and their participation during class.

The only complaint the instructors and gymnasts have is that they need more chances to demonstrate their skills. Throughout the year both classes perform during half time shows compete at regionals and present their annual spring program...

Showing their skills to all in their seats, the JCHS gymnasts attempt great feats.

1. Richard Lytle you're supposed to walk on your feet, not your hands. 2. What a bunch of clowns. 3. Russell Cline pull your shirt down, what would your mother say. 4. Ann Greenwald has got what it takes for perfection.

Macho Women and Glamorous Men Filly Football 1978

This year's traditional Filly Football game was dominated by the Senior girls, winning with a score of 34-6. This annual event is sponsored by the Kayettes, and was held on Saturday, Nov. 4th.

The macho women of the Senior class seemed to be playing their cards right this year by betting their odds with Andrea James, who made 4 touchdowns, and Nancy McCullough, who made 1 touchdown and a two point conversion. Kim Nelson also made a two point conversion.

The Juniors seemed to have a streak of bad luck with only one touchdown, made by Shirley Laster.

Other major events of the game were the crowning of the glamorous King Mark Guantt (Sr.) and Princes Bob Story (Jr.) and Larry Goins (So.) and the VW stuff, in which 39 Sophomores participated.

1. Okay, here's the plan: bite, kick and scratch. 2. They call me "Ravishing Rob!" 3. Now 'days it's hard to tell the boys from the girls. 4. Thirty-nine less Sophomores to contend with. 5. Prince Bob Story and escorts Carla Hoyle and Chris Steinfort. 6. Senior King Mark Guantt and escorts Candy Bush and Brenda Pelfrey. 7. Nancy McCullough moving the ball for the Seniors. 8. Sophomore Prince Duke Goins and escorts Randee Waechter and Susan Deam.

DISCO ... 79 - RPM

"Shake Your Groove Thing"

Nineteen hundred and seventy-nine remains the year of disco dancing. From school sock-hops and Royalty dances to community sponsored activities, there's just no stopping the best of the music.

"Saturday Night Fever," has struck the floors of many discoteques and the fever has spread to the dances in Junction City. Disco has become the main feature of everyone's weekend nights. The guys with their skin-tight pants and silky shirts, and the ladies with their jersey skirts and almost-not body blouses, all enjoy the frienzed beats.

The disco craze will live on forever, and all you have to do is grab a partner and dance the night away.

1. Isabel Strauss saying, "So you think that joke is funny, John?" 2. Students enjoy the beat of the music. 3. Tim Nicholson learning a new dance. 4. "Hey, is that my boyfriend I see over there?" 5. "I know I left my instrument around here somewhere." 6. Gene Bantugen, another John Travolta? 6. Henry Harris Hey, there's nothing to it! 8. An exasperated Ira Reed, "Can you believe this messy floor?" 9. Alphonso Mitchell and friend.

J-Steppers & J-Spinners

Hard Work Pays Off . . .

The highlight of every home football game comes when the J-Steppers and J-Spinners perform to the beat of the band. Hard practice every day, marching down the field on cold mornings, and remembering which hand goes up and which goes down are some of the pressures put on every girl between each game.

Once football season is over, basketball season begins. This means choreographing more routines, learning them in a couple of days, and perfecting each from stance to break.

The fans aren't in a stadium 50 yards away, as is the case in football. They're just 5 feet in front of the performers, staring with their watchful eyes.

Performing at games aren't the only jobs J-Steppers and J-Spinners have. Another responsibility is pre-game, in which the National Anthem is escorted to the audience.

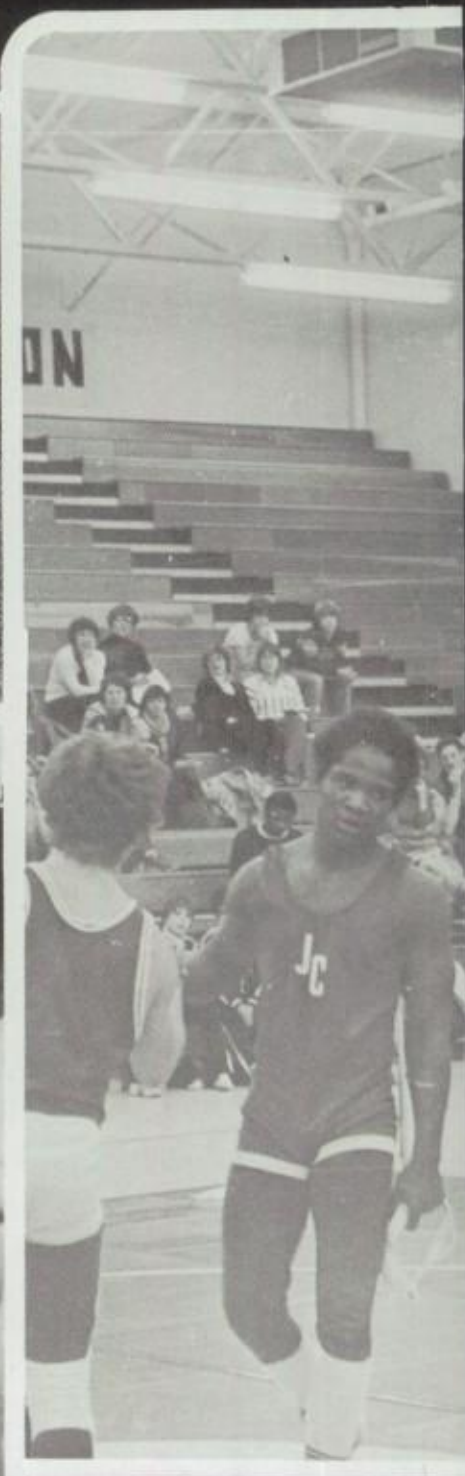

The J-Steppers and J-Spinners also participate in the school musical. Invitations take the Drill Team traveling to perform for other schools; also an honored performance is that of participating at State Basketball and Wrestling tournaments.

Being a J-Stepper or J-Spinner is a privilege every girl dreams of. Once that dream comes true, it is not all fun and games, but the glory that comes after each performance makes that hard work worth while.

1. Drill Team and Twirlers perform pre-game. 2. Co-Steppers, Lori Goins and Kim Nelson; Asst. Co-Steppers, Debra Courtney, Corey Stanesic and Sandra Holloway.

3. Debra Courtney poses for Miss Kansas Drill Team Pageant. 4. Sheryl Setter looks disappointed after dropping her baton.

If at first you don't succeed, you are running about average.

ROYALTY

Homecoming 1978

Opening Night Reminiscing

On Friday the 6th of October, spirit was high as the Homecoming festivities got underway.

Students decorating floats were dismissed at 1:30, while the remainder of the student body was released at 2:30 to enjoy the parade. French Club took first place in the Individual competition, Kays and Kayettes took first place in the Organization division, while the Junior Class took first place in the Class competition.

That night the Queen and her court were crowned during the half-time ceremony of the Junction City - Wyandotte game. The JCHS Marching Band, J-Steppers and J-Spinners formed a heart around the candidates for the coronation.

As the candidates and newly crowned Royalty were escorted off the field, the song "Tonight" filled the air with memories.

The new Queen and her court were, Candy Bush, Queen, Chris Steinfort, junior princess and Sandy Lindsey, sophomore princess.

The memories continued to be good as the Jays defeated the Bulldogs 13-12.

The following night, the Homecoming dance was held in the South gym. The dance had a Hollywood feel, as the theme was carried out, "Opening Night; Reminiscing."

The success of the Homecoming was credited to StuCo, who sponsored all events.

"Mike, yes those are flowers." Ann says.

1. The French Club float wins first place.

 3. Sandy Lindsley is crowned Sophomore Princess. 4. Candy Bush is happily surprised at the announcement of the Queen. 5. Chris Steinfort, the Junior Princess.

Maiya Wisby Crowned Queen. . .

An Evening of "Winter Fantasy"

On January 20, 1979, Maiya Wisby was crowned Queen at the annual Snowflake Dance, "Winter Fantasy." Included in her court, were Junior Princess Kathy Gelvin and Sophomore Princess Nancy Wensel.

The dance began at 8 pm. with the coronation at 9 pm. The mothers of the candidates were first introduced and led into the gym. Then the candidates were escorted to the coronation platform by their fathers. After the coronation Maiya Wisby and her escort Jim Mulligan led the spotlight dance to the music of "You needed Me."

The remainder of the dance was enjoyed by over 150 students. DJ's Kevin Wilmot and James Russel served as the entertainment.

The Kays and Kayettes sponsored all the activities for the evening. The decorations consisted of a well in the middle of the gym, and snowmen and evergreen trees in all four corners.

Treasured Moments

Sweetheart Dance is "Too Much Heaven"

The 1979 Sweetheart Dance was held Saturday, February 3. The theme song, "Too Much Heaven," was perfect for the Dance, as King Mike Goodwin and Queen Ann Greenwald took the throne with their courts, Princes Ira Reed and Warren Schlichting and Princesses Andrea James and Louise Welch. Other candidates were Tim Wunder, Bobby Cunningham, Henry Harris, Barbara May, Alice Steuerwald and Francine Toombs.

Booster Club sponsored the dance and was in charge of the coordinations. Rich Cobbs from Lawrence was the DJ.

STUDENT LIFE

Student Life

The Natives are Restless . . .

JCHS students spend a great deal of their time in the classroom. Whether it be taking a test, talking to a classmate, or listening to a lecture, they all show their talents in different ways.

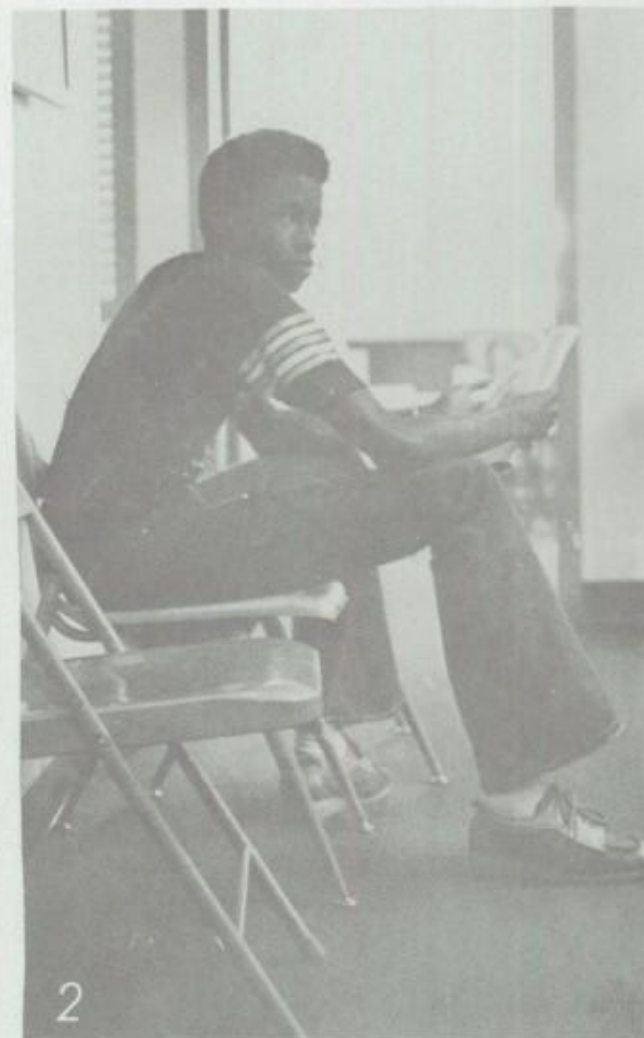

Finally, the 3:25 bell rings... the natives cut loose of all their inhibitions, and let their wild instincts take hold. Some participate in our athletic program, others are involved with work, and a few lose themselves in a homework assignment.

As the sun settles into the Flint Hills of Junction City, the natives come out in full force, and begin the nightly game of cruising the town. Rumors of parties spread throughout 6th Street, and soon all are heading for the lake.

Along with all of the fun and games experienced by the students, some will last forever; things like Seniors camping out at the lake for Senior Week, Juniors worrying all year about prom decorations, then having the greatest prom ever, and confused Sophomores getting lost trying to find their way back from Taste Freeze.

Whenever students are in school, out of school, or loose in the streets, they are successful in keeping the dice rolling in the High School Game.

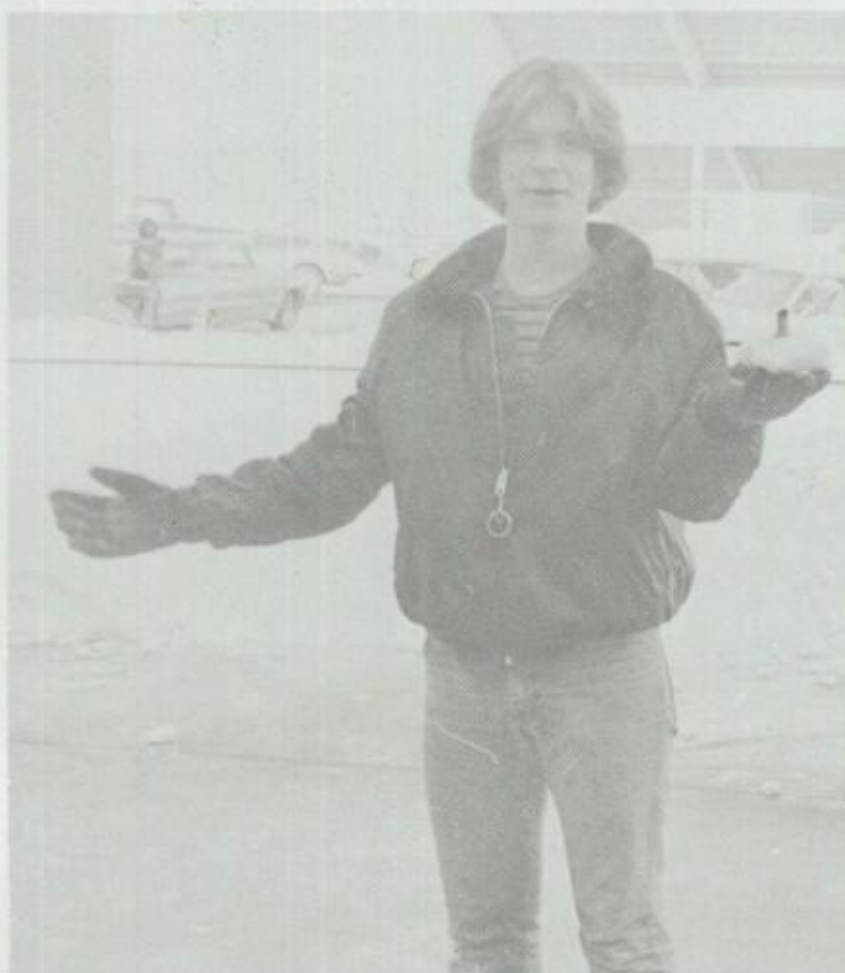

1. Seniors prove why they're No. 1. 2. One of those is a hot seat. Guess which one? 3. What are you guys gonna do after you get past the marsh-mellow. 4. Bonnie (Cindy Lundeen) and (Benny Levinson) Clyde case Central National Bank. 5. The rock group "Morning Star" brings culture to JCHS. 6. Shelley Scott and Janie Cotton clutter up the hallway. 7. Voted the most likley to make the cover of Vogue.

JCHS Winter Slip Sliding Away

UPI News—Press officials have traveled to the town of Junction City, Kansas just to see what the high school students have been up to. They came up with a variety of winter activities. Some of the more favorite were snowball fights, going to the high school games, freezing, cruising and not having anywhere to go, skiing or trying to, using jumper cables, watching cartoons, munchin on pizza and hot chocolate, scraping ice off things, going to the Snowflake Dance even if you hate your date, wearing longjohns, being proud to have a late bus pass and keeping warm with a loved one.

1. Mmm, Mmm, boy that school lunch sure sticks to your ribs, as well as to the roof of your mouth. 2. And here's the pitch. 3. I'm so good at gymnastics, I've only had three broken noses. 4. I was just coming in to turn in this illegal cigar. 5. See what Mike Augustine learned at the Zoo. 6. Don't worry, nobody saw you fall down in the snow. 7. The creature from the Black Lagoon. 8. LAST OF THE 70'S

..IN SHOW BIZ

In the world of Show Biz, we saw new actors and actresses climbing the ladder to fame while some old stand-bys faded out.

At the theater we watched as John Travolta became Hollywood's new star with films like "Saturday Night Fever" and "Grease." Star Wars brought Luke Skywalker, Princess Leia and Darth Vader into national prominence. We cheered for the underdog in "Rocky" and the depth and height of good taste were brought to us in "Animal House" and "Superman."

On television "Mork and Mindy" brought Mork from Ork and "Nanoo, Nanoo" into everyone's home. Happy Days remained the Number 1 show and everyone cut Saturday dates short to rush home and watch "Saturday Night Live." Novels came to TV in the form of "Roots," "Rich Man Poor Man" and "The Immigrants."

Farrah Fawcett Majors and Cheryl Tiegs were plastered all over posters and T-shirts. Steve Martin showed us what a wild and crazy guy he is and Mickey Mouse turned 50.

In the 70's we also lost such favorites as Elvis Presley, Charlie Chaplin, Bing Crosby, Freddy Printz and Groucho Marx.

..IN SPORTS

In the world of sports we saw athletes getting younger and younger. Nancy Lopez of professional golf, was voted the best rookie of the year. 18 year-old Steve Cauthen jockeyed Affirmed to win the Triple Crown of horse racing and 16 year-old Tracy Austin showed the older tennis pros what she was made of. We watched as 5 year-old Bucky Cox of Lawrence, completed the 26 mile Sundown Salute Marathon and earned international recognition.

Diana Nyad failed in her attempt to swim from Puerto Rico to Florida, and Dave Thomas of basketball's Denver Nuggets was the highest paid athlete in the United States. We sat enthralled as Mohammad Ali came back to regain his World Heavyweight Championship over Leon Spinx, and as Pete Rose of the Cincinnati Reds broke Ty Cobb's 44-game hitting streak.

The New York Yankees defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers to become World Series Champions again. We rooted for Pittsburgh as they narrowly stole the Super Bowl title from the Dallas Cowboys by a score of 35-31.

..IN FADS

The fads of the seventies brought us toe socks, lowered hem lines and curly permanents. The movie Annie Hall gave us the Annie Hall look, which started us wearing vests and ties. Boots came back big and when we weren't wearing straight-leg jeans we wore painters pants or even plastic jeans. Girls dressed up in the satiney, glittery disco look and carried clutch purses and disco-bags. We played tennis, jogged and whizzed by on mopeds and skateboards. And when we weren't running around in bed sheets attending Belushi-style toga parties we ate space candy and "good buddied" on our C.B's.

in MUSIC

The definite highlight of the '70's was the trend of Music. We remember from the last couple of years the radio played every disco tune from artists such as the Commodores; Earth, Wind and Fire, Bee Gees and the supposed soul of Disco music.

During the late '70s KC and the Sunshine Band raced to the top of the charts, while the Bee Gees could be credited with a fine show of gold records. Among the Bee Gees greats are "Night Fever," "How deep is your Love" and "Staying Alive." Earth, Wind and Fire led us through a world of "Fantasy," while the Commodores boogied to, "Too Hot to Trot" and "Three Times a Lady."

With the untimely death of the band, Lynard Skynard's hard rock took its toll. Lynard Skynard was recognized for "What's your Name" and "Sweet Home Alabama." A special effect for hard rock band ranged from Queen, with such hits as "We are the Champions" and "Bicycle." The nucleus of rock was shaped by such greats as Ted Nugent, Styx, REO Speedwagon, Dire Straits, Boston and Electric Light Orchestra.

Those of us who didn't go for rock music had our own share of music with the country and Western end. Country music took quite a turn during the 70's for the more popular. Many hits were on the country and pop charts at the same time. Artists such as Kenny Rogers, Dolly Parton, Linda Ronstadt, Jerry Jeff Walker, Tom T. Hall and Waylon & Willie broadened the ever changing music trend.

Bringing us some good old sing-along tunes were Eric Clapton, with "Lay Down Sally," Raydio with "Jack-n-Jill," Samantha Sang with "Emotion," Eddie Money with "Baby Hold On," LDT with "Back in Love Again."

Offering us the best songs, some that could be rated as classics were, "Miss American Pie," "Freebird" "Stairway to Heaven," and many many more.

*DAVIS,

didn't hurt you.

..in the NEWS

Some of the more noteworthy news events we saw were the Civil War in Iran, the Egyptian-Israeli peace talks, the coming and going of two Popes and the naming of the first non-Italian Pope and the grisly mass suicide of People's Temple members in Guyana.

In the nation we saw President Carter normalize relations with China, give the Panama Canal back to the Panamanians and acting as mediator in the Mid-East peace talks. Voters called for a reduction in Government waste in Proposition 13 and we either booed or applauded as the Equal Rights Amendment gained a seven year extension.

Title IX gave women's sports equal consideration and gave us co-ed gym classes. We were told that saccharine, well done hamburgers and sugarless gum could give us cancer. And we found that the super cure for cancer was laetrile, which is made from peach pits.

The birth rate dropped to zero and Louise Brown was born in London as the world's first test tube baby.

Airlines added no frills flights Patty Hearst was released from jail and Nixon became a grandfather.

Election '78 gave Kansas a new Governor, democrat John Carlin and Republicans gained the edge in the state house and Senate. Controversy was raised over the nuclear reactor at Wolf Creek and we shivered through two of the coldest winters on record.

For the Seniors of 1979, the High School Game is over; but the underclassmen have much to look forward to. We, as Editors of the 1979 Pow Wow wish to everyone Good Luck in the continuing Game of Life. We also hope as you look at this yearbook now and in the years to come, that you find pleasure and can consider yourself a winner in the Game.

To everyone who helped in the production of this yearbook, we sincerely thank you.

Special thanks go to:

Montgomery Publications, for many of the pictures in the book.

Roy Richardson, of Roy's Photography, for his thorough work in the senior class photographs and his help with our photographers.

The teachers of JCHS, for their endless understanding in working with us.

Bob Strahley and Steve Saucedo at the District print shop, for their help with setting headlines and senior names.

Kelly Wright, our Josten's rep. for his help with planning and the cover design.

Dave Gift and the people at Josten's for understanding our late deadlines and last minute changes.

The Yearbook staff and photographers, without whom the yearbook would not be possible.

And finally many thanks to Mr. Charles Baker, our adviser, for his ability and understanding.
